

Subjective Pronouns

Filipino (Tagalog)	English
ako	i
ikaw	you (singular)
kayo	you (plural)
siya	he/she/they (singular)
sina	they (2 people)
sila	they (3 or more people)
tayo	we (includes everyone)
kami	we (excludes someone)

Objective Pronouns

Filipino (Tagalog)	English
akin	me
iyo	you (singular)
inyo	you (plural)
kaniya	him/her/them (singular)
kanila	them (plural)
atin	us (includes everyone)
amin	us (excludes someone)

Possessive Pronouns

Filipino (Tagalog)		English
Before Noun	After Noun
akin	ko	my
iyo	mo	your (singular)
inyo	ninyo	your (plural)
kaniya	niya	his/her/their (singular)
atin	natin	our (includes everyone)
amin	namin	our (excludes someone)
kanila	nila	their (plural)

Demonstrative Pronouns

Filipino (Tagalog)	English
ito	this
ito ang mga	these [are]
iyang	that
iyang mga	those [are]
iyon	that (farther)
iyon ang mga	those [are] (farther)

Mga Pananong (Interogative Words)

Filipino (Tagalog)	English
Sino?	Who?
Ano?	What?
Saan/Nasaan?	Where?
Kailan?	When?
Bakit?	Why?
Alin?	Which?
Paano?	How?
Ilan?	How many?
Magkano?	How much?

Note:

- “Saan” questions specifically refer to either the place of action or a continuing condition.
 - Example: Saan siya pumunta?
Translation: Where did he/she go?
 Reply to “saan” questions begin with “sa...” followed by the place where the action occurred in the sentence.
- “Nasaan” questions specifically refer to where a person, thing or place is located.
 - Example: Nasaan ang lunch box mo?
Translation: Where is your lunch box?
 Reply to “nasaan” questions begin with “nasa...” followed by the location.